HILLO HORSES MAKE DEBUT

Joe McAuliffe Has an Offer of Partnership — Probable Winners.

Trainers have entered on their final stage of preparation, finishing touches are being put on, grand stand and track and horsemen are anxiously awaiting the advent of the 9th inst.

In town discussion of the merits of the favorites is becoming general, and by the end of the week the gentle and joyous pastime of picking winners will be universally indulged in.

Entries do not close till Wednesday night, and to attempt a prognostication of the probable winners at this early date is of a truth drawing the prophetic bow at a venture.

Without being aware of the intentions of the various owners, the following hints, with the provision of a start in the event named, are given as a guide to those individuals in whom the bump of prematurity is unduly developed. The majority of the punters, however, will remain content to avail themselves of the ample opportunities presented for "bluing" their rolls on the actual day of the races.

First Day—The half mile dash for maidens looks like Ahui Manu.

Sir Cassimir should annex the half mile free for all.

The erratic Garterline should go close for the five furlongs free for all dash, provided she does not indulge in a fit of tantrums.

Fred Eros will be hard to beat in the 2:30 class.

The five furlongs dash for Hawaiian bred should be won by Amario.

Vioris is worth tabbing for the mile free for all.

Second Day—Union Feed Co. Cup, Sir Cassimir.

2:24 Class: Directress, if Fred Eros is not pulled out again.

Aggravation will run prominently in the five furlongs maiden race.

California Feed Co.'s Cup: Leah.

Rainier Cup: Venus looks a "pipe," but she has looked that way before and the pipe has leaked.

Waikapu Cup: Venus every time, though Garterline in the same stable is dangerous.

Special Driving Race: Geo. Carter's nomination.

Rosita Challenge Cup: Gen. Cronje.

Criterion Cup: Manufactured for Weller this year.

Yesterday's work was as follows: Amario worked three-quarters in 1:20, finishing under the whip.

Aggravation, Weller, Sir Cassimir, Allegro, Vioris, Antidote, Flammarif, Venus, Garterline and Ahui Manu did slow work.

General Cronje was given swimming exercise.

The "dark" bay mare from Hilo worked a half in 52 in the morning and five furlongs in the afternoon. She acted sore.

The mysterious sorrel gelding from Hilo worked a half in the afternoon. Much speculation is being indulged in as to the credentials of these two horses and there is not a man at the track who will not swear that he has held tickets on them in this or some previous incarnation.

Dilapidated Loafer (to Joe McAuliffe, who is rubbing General Cronje for all he is worth)—"Say, cully, gimme 'alf a dollar an' I'll 'elp yer with yer 'orse."

J. M. (contemptuously)—"An' pray what can you do?"

D. L. (superciliously)—"You do the rubbin' an' I'll do the 'issin'."

Volley of currys, soap, empty bottles and other plants that flourish around stables.

The purses for the coming two days' racing aggregate $2,725, and in addition there are several valuable cups to be competed for.

Sam Parker will not be here to see his horses run; he leaves for Philadelphia on the China today.

P. M. McMahon, the foot racer, arrived from Hilo on the Kinau.

MCCULLY TRACT SOLD.

Will Be Sub-divided and Laid Out in Building Lots.

The big McCully Tract has passed into the control of George Paris after a year's dilly-dallying in effecting the bargain. The papers were signed and the confirmation of the deal made last evening to an Advertiser representative by Mr. Paris. The land will be subdivided into lots. The company is to have the land filled in and bituminous streets will be laid. The entire area comprises about 150 acres and when completely laid out will make a splendid addition to Honolulu's outlying suburbs.

The property begins at the turn of the Waikiki road from King street, directly adjoining that of John Cummins. Paris secures control of all the leaseholds which have been retained by Chinese for a number of years. As stated some weeks ago the land is to be filled in to the level of the King street and Waikiki road datum lines. It is proposed to have the sewer system extended through all the subdivisions of the big tract and connect it with a sufficient water supply. Bishop & Co. and the Bank of Hawaii stand sponsors to the agreement.

After a recent ecclesiastical gathering, as the clergymen were trooping into luncheon, one of the most unctuous observed: "Now to put a bridle on our appetites." "Now to put a bit between my teeth," retorted the Bishop of Winchester, Dr. Randall Davidson.
